

Family Focus

Foley wins art show blue ribbon

The Indian Lake Art Show was staged on Sunday, Apr. 2nd. Lea and Bill Foley of Fedhaven entered some of their best paintings in the show. Bill was awarded the blue ribbon for one of his entries and Lea won two honorable mention awards.

The annual Fedhaven Art Show was on Wednesday, April 5, and details of the winners will be announced next week.

Hole-in-One
March 28 was the last Hole-in-One Tournament for the year. It was a beautiful very warm day for the event for the end of the season match. The men's division had three first place winners, all with five points. Fred Harvey and Tom Keller of Fedhaven and Palmer Olson of Nalcrest all tied for first. A second place tie between John Siwlow and Frank Reda rounded off the men's division.

The ladies were in good form in spite of the heat. Doris Clarksson and Angie Newman tied for first with seven points followed by Rose Colson with five points.

Frank Reda also won "Closest to the Pin" with only 25 inches to spare, and Sam Mitrano sank all 10 balls on the putting board. It was a terrific day for these two guys.

And for the rest of the participants who didn't win anything, there was plenty to eat and lots to talk about. Sam informed me a total of 98 cans of soda were consumed, along with six cases of beer, 160 hot dogs and the usual chips and popcorn. Everyone had fun and can't wait for next year to start all over again.

And for the rest of the participants who didn't win anything, there was plenty to eat and lots to talk about. Sam informed me a total of 98 cans of soda were consumed, along with six cases of beer, 160 hot dogs and the usual chips and popcorn. Everyone had fun and can't wait for next year to start all over again.

Kelsey clips

Martha Kelsey often brings me clippings from her bulletins and papers. They are cute sayings about senior citizens and the aging process. Here is one of the latest she delivered:

Things Just Ain't the Same Anymore
Everything is further away than it used to be, it is twice as far to the corner and I noticed they've added a hill.
I've given up running for a bus.
It leaves faster than it used

FEDHAVEN NEWS

K.C. Ciferri

to. It seems they're making the stairs steeper than in the old days, too.

And have you noticed the smaller print they now use in the newspaper?

There is no sense in asking anyone to read aloud — everyone speaks in such low voices, I can hardly hear them.

It's almost impossible to reach my shoelaces, and I can't figure out why!

Even people are changing.

They are so much younger than they used to be, when I was their age. On the other hand, people my own age are so much older than I am.

I ran across an old classmate the other day, and he had aged so badly, he didn't recognize me!

(K. C. Ciferri is postmistress at Fedhaven and resident of Lake Wales. Contributions to her column may be mailed to Daily Highlander, P.O. Box 872, or brought to the office.)